News and Views – hosted this week by Stockton

"O Lord, from whom all good things come: grant to us your humble servants, that by your holy inspiration we may think those things that are good, and by your merciful guiding may perform the same; through our Lord Jesus Christ, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.
Amen.

This is a prayer for the weekdays following the day of pentecost, it reminds us to think on good things and to do good things. But more than that it reminds us not to do either in our own strength and to be inspired by the Holy Spirit. My prayer for us is that we continue to be inspired by the Holy Spirit in our everyday lives and especially during this time of seeking God's will for the future of our parishes.

And finally -

Holy God,

faithful and unchanging:

enlarge our minds with the knowledge of your truth,

and draw us more deeply into the mystery of your love,

that we may truly worship you,

Father, Son and Holy Spirit,

one God, now and for ever.

God bless,
